Tutor Learning Initiative 2021/2022

Area	Question	Answer
Tutor 2022	Will the Tutor Learning Initiative (TLI) run in 2022?	Yes, on October 4, 2021, it was announced the TLI will be extended and run for the 2022 school year.
	How do I register my interest in becoming a tutor or Casual Relief Teacher in 2021/22	To register your interest, you will need to create an Applicant Profile in the Job Opportunities pool on Recruitment Online (ROL). To be considered for tutoring and/or CRT opportunities, 'tutor' and/or 'Casual Relief Teacher' must be selected as the ' role type ' in the Applicant Profile. Applicant Help - Recruitment Online is available at Human resources: Applicant Help - Recruitment Online (education.vic.gov.au) Schools will be able to search for individuals who have registered their interest and may contact you for employment as a tutor.
	I am currently a fixed term tutor as part of TLI 2021, can I remain a tutor for 2022?	The TLI 2022 is considered a new period of employment. As a fixed term tutor who was employed as part of the TLI 2021, you will need to create an applicant profile in the Job Opportunities pool. When creating your profile, ensure you select tutor as a role type. If you are a current employee, you will access the Job Opportunities pool through the eduPay Employee Home Page. If you have a current Applicant Profile in the Job Opportunities pool, with tutor selected as a role type, you will not have to take any further action. Schools will be able to search for individuals who have registered their interest and have selected tutor as a role type and may contact you for employment as a tutor.
	I am an ongoing, part time, teacher and interested in becoming a tutor in 2022. Am I able to apply for tutor positions? How do I register my interest?
